European Conference on Club Management 2020

BACK TO THE FUTURE

About

Welcome to the 2020 European Conference on Club Management.

We are delighted to be able to bring our members together for three days of education and networking during these difficult times. The thirst for quality club specific education in Europe & Middle East (and Northern Africa) remains exceptional and we are proud to be hosting this online conference for you today.

We have secured an engaging group of speakers who will cover a range of relevant topics from the core competencies, which includes 18 of our own Certified Club Managers and Diploma holders.

Our thanks goes out to our corporate partners, whose generosity continues to enable CMAE to offer such an excellent education programme.

We hope you enjoy the education and networking and thank you for attending.

Torbjorn Johansson, Director of Education

She is also an International Implementer of The Entrepreneurial Operating System®, helping SME's get what they want out of their businesses.

SUSAN STEVENSON

10.00-12.00 WORKSHOP 2

Lean Process and Six Sigma

Six Sigma and Lean Process experiential workshop will share tools, systems and framework that have been developed and used in other industries for eliminating defects and waste in the business process. Six Sigma and Lean process workshop will provide an introduction to a way of thinking and behaving that has changed many corporations in the world. This workshop will give participants an opportunity to reflect, learn, and create new tools, ideas, concepts to apply in their clubs to deliver the intended result in 2021 and beyond.

DARSHAN SINGH

11.00-12.40 WORKSHOP 3

How do we give members the warm embrace - when we dare not embrace?

Golf rounds have spiked. Historic perceptions of our game are under review. And younger people have decided CLUB might be for them after all ! But with clubhouse restrictions ongoing and precautions to be followed, how do we continue to put CLUB in to clubhouse ? Discover what clubs around the globe are doing to overcome this challenge, and assess your club's approach to the four questions that will ensure you lead your team in your never ending mission to increase member loyalty and belonging.

KEVIN FISH CCM

13.00-14.40 WORKSHOP 4

Scenario Planning

Scenario planning is making assumptions on what the future is going to be and how your business environment will change overtime in light of that future. More precisely, Scenario planning is identifying a specific set of uncertainties, different “realities” of what might happen in the future of your business.

Bill has been in constant demand as a business coach, to all types and sizes of business, for over thirty years. Bill guides, motivates and inspires in equal measure but always through the delivery of exceptional performance.

BILL SANDERSON

14.00-16.00 WORKSHOP 5

Change Management

Participants will be able to discuss what change is currently affecting them, and not only how to deal with it effectively, but also how to make change happen. The completed worksheet will give them a living document to take back to the office and quickly begin implementing a “culture of curiosity” both in their personal and professional lives.

Andre's storied career in the hospitality industry spanned three continents and the world's finest hotels. He was at the peak of his game. Until the day tragedy struck. He went blind and was followed shortly by a diagnosis of cancer that was metastasizing. André made a discovery and is now sharing it with the world.

ANDRE VAN HALL

15.00-16.30 WORKSHOP 6

SEMINAR 1

Membership and Marketing travel back to the future

Daniel Asis, CCM & Alberto Iglesias, CCM

Clubs and golf courses are a fighting ground for traditions and modern trends. Club managers need strategies to improve member attraction and retention in post-COVID times. The array of tools is wider than ever to retain members and attract new customers.

Building Trust in your Club

Andrew Whitelaw, CCM & Tristan Hall, CCM

Believing in the reliability, truth or ability of someone is a key building block to running a successful club. This session "Building Trust in your Club" examines how Trust is built through the various stakeholder groups highlighting the key components of Trust that will help you drive the performance of your Club. An engaging session drawing on various examples of how building Trust is essential and in particular during the Covid-19 Pandemic.

Work life balance through Effective Management

Fraser Jervis, CMDip & Criscia Walker, CMDip

With this seminar comes Structure within the work place - Roles & Expectations, Training & Planning all lead to good Governance. If all of this is in place it will have a positive effect on Time Management and therefore assist in work life balance.

We are not perfect. All we can be is our best at work or at home.

There are 3 Golden rules for work balance through effective management.

"Even if you can't spend the time we want in an aspect of our life, be your best at it when we are in it."

SEMINAR 2

How to burn down your Club house (in three easy steps)

David Roy, CCM & Chris May, CCM

In this session, you will learn

- How to neglect maintenance to generate spontaneous combustion.
- How to ensure that staff can spectate as their clubhouse is reduced to ashes.
- How to prevent the Fire Brigade interfering.

A major fire is a highly traumatic experience, frightening and life-threatening. There are a number of reasonably simple maintenance issues that can help prevent such an event and this session can illustrate how.

Overcoming F&B hurdles

James Burns, CCM & Michael Braidwood, CCM

In these strange times F&B operations have had a lot of restrictions put on them. These 'hurdles' have allowed creative thinkers to come up with innovative ideas on how to overcome the challenge and make their F&B operations viable. In this session you will learn about collaborative and creative thinking to aid you F&B operations through challenging times via 6 different international case studies –

- Collaborative thinking
- Dare to be different
- Great time to experiment
- Keeping your team engaged

Passion, Integrity, Respect

Gabriel Sota, CCM & Derek Mckenzie, CCM & José María Olazábal

Ryder Cup Captain and World Hall of Famer José María Olazábal will share stories from the past but most importantly talk about his thoughts about the future of golf and the golf clubs. His values lies in the following three words: Passion, Integrity, Respect.

In 2012 he captained Europe's Ryder Cup team to a narrow victory over the US, which seemed improbable at the start of the final day's play when the Europeans trailed 10-6. They came back to win 14½-13½.

José is now active in the golf industry with designing Golf courses with his company Olazabal Design and looking for the future development of the game.

SEMINAR 3

Amazing Encounters & How to KISS

Laurie Martin & Howie Roberts, CMDip

Listen to the stories with having a greenkeeper who is first generation Non-Cannibal, having a gun fight at the golf course, entertaining presidents - but also how to deal with stress and encounters with your self and your team. This duo from two different parts of the world (Canada & Bali) will bring a seminar worth remembering.

Culture eats strategy for breakfast - learning to succeed through challenge and change

Adam Rowledge & Michael Newland, CCM

In this session we will share with you how to transform your business through effective culture change, drive competitive advantage through learning and lead through change and uncertainty. Throughout the current challenging times that we're in, our ability to 'do change' well, learn and innovate is what sets us apart from the competition, join us to benefit from tips, tools and techniques to help you succeed.

What's wrong with your Social Media?

David White, CMDip & Ascanio Pacelli, CCM

A seminar on Digital Marketing where we will hear how a club potentially could "win" in social media without having employees fully dedicated to social media marketing. We also cover why you need to invest in your platforms.

Keynote Speakers

09.00-09.40

KEYNOTE 1

Measuring Leadership Success

Rob Hill, GGA Partners

Most of us have hero-leaders whose accomplishments we admire. Some are renowned the world over. Some are personal to us. We judge the success of their leadership by the decisions they make, the way they arrive at them and most of all, the positive impact of their actions.

So how should club leaders measure the success of their leadership? Are they measuring what really counts? In his keynote address, Rob Hill will suggest metrics for measuring leadership success in 2020 and beyond.

11.30-12.15

KEYNOTE 2

Effective Change Management

Andre Van Hall

Do Not Fear Managing Change – Be the Change

The most important kind of change is the one that YOU initiate or influence, the one you can make happen on purpose! Of course, it's easier to fall into a safe routine and resist moving forward, but I am here to tell you: "Do not fear managing change – be the change."

Keynote Speakers

14.00-14.40
KEYNOTE 3

Roller Coaster Ride

Arnaldo Cocuzza, CCM

Arnaldo was a very successful Club Manager at an Italian Club and also former President of the CMAE. Life was good. He then lost his job and received some negative criticism. He was offered a position and new opportunity in the USA and uprooted his family for an American adventure. After many years of hard work, he has secured a Visa and now finds himself at the exclusive Desert Mountain Club in Arizona in the role of Director of Athletics. Hear his story here.

16.15-17.00
KEYNOTE 4

Attitude Amplifier

Vincent Phipps

Vincent Ivan Phipps is a keynote speaker, workshop facilitator and communication coach. Vincent is called The Attitude Amplifier due to his high energy, content rich material, and interactive presentation style.

Vincent's philosophy is, "If I can get you to laugh, I can get you to listen. If I can get you to listen, I can help you amplify."
