

Coaching & Mentoring Qualifications for Club Managers

LEVEL 5 CERTIFICATE IN EFFECTIVE
COACHING & MENTORING

CLUB MANAGEMENT
ASSOCIATION
OF EUROPE

Course Overview

The ILM Level 5 Certificate in Effective Coaching & Mentoring provides managers and leaders with the knowledge, skills and confidence to introduce coaching and mentoring into your setting, to perform effectively as a coach to support staff and develop a coaching culture.

Explore the impact of coaching as well as developing the skills, confidence and competencies of coaching at a managerial level. This qualification will enable you to increase efficiencies, retain talent, set and drive positive behaviours while providing a platform for effective communication.

The Main Aims

A skilled coach or mentor is an invaluable asset to any organisation. As well as increasing confidence and motivation, ILM's coaching and mentoring qualifications improve management performance, conflict resolution, communication and interpersonal skills.

Course Agenda

This is a 4-day, face-to-face, highly practical, experiential and for many, transformational course which focuses on the development and refining of coaching competencies, combined with learning tools, techniques and approaches.

The in-person course is spread across 4 x face-to-face days plus 3 x virtual seminars.

The whole course, including completion of assignments takes approximately 8-12 months to complete, depending on your pace of independent study and ability to fulfil the practical coaching hours required.
